

K-LOVE is the only radio station that I have turned on. It provides me with great programming. I love the music choices and I don't have to worry about what my family might hear. Plus, there are no commercials. There is no other station in our area that provides the same. It means enough to me to support them financially.